

5. What can happen if different parts of the body act in ways that are contrary to their function? (verses 3-5)

6. What does it mean to belong to one another? (verse 5)

7. What are the spiritual gifts that Paul outlines in this passage? Who are people you know who exhibit some of these gifts? (verses 6-8)

8. How can love be insincere? (verse 9)

Review Results

The questions below correlate to your results after taking the assessment.

1. What were some of the strengths of your temperament? How did they relate to the spiritual gifts mentioned in verses 6-8?
2. What were some of the character growth areas of your temperament?
3. Which of the biblical figures profiled do you identify most with?
4. What are specific ways those with your temperament can bless others?

5. Did anything surprise you about your personality profile?

6. What are the areas of growth that you would like to work on during this season of your life?